Discovering the Lakes of Northern Italy

6 nights

DAY 1 – Villa Taranto and Lake Orta

Arrival in the Lake Maggiore region in the morning, followed by a visit to the famous Villa Taranto Gardens in Verbania, known for the beauty and diversity of their plantings. Then, transfer to Pettenasco for lunch at a local restaurant. After the meal, departure by boat to San Giulio Island for a guided tour, then continuation by boat to the charming village of Orta, where a walk is planned. Late afternoon, return by boat to Pettenasco before reaching a hotel in the region for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Borromean Islands

The day is entirely dedicated to discovering the three Borromean Islands. Starting from Baveno, a boat trip allows consecutive visits to Isola Bella, where you will discover the sumptuous Borromeo Palace with its magnificent richly decorated halls and tiered gardens offering spectacular views of the lake. Then, continuation to Isola dei Pescatori and Isola Madre, each offering a unique blend of landscapes, gardens, and historic architecture. Late afternoon, return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Lake Como: Villa Carlotta and Bellagio

Departure towards Lake Como with a first stop at Villa Carlotta in Tremezzo, famous for its lush gardens and art collection. Then, continuation by boat to Bellagio for lunch at a restaurant in the heart of the village. The afternoon is free for a stroll through the village and discovery of its picturesque alleys. Return by boat to Tremezzo, then transfer to a hotel located in the region for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Bergamo

In the morning, departure towards Bergamo for a visit to the city, the Italian Capital of Culture 2023. You will discover the Città Alta, the historic heart perched on a hill, with its cobblestone streets, lively squares like Piazza Vecchia, elegant palaces, and ancient churches that recount the city's history and artistic heritage. Lunch is planned at a local restaurant during the visit. In the afternoon, continuation towards Lake Garda and check-in at a hotel located in the region for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Lake Garda: Sirmione and Bardolino region

Day dedicated to discovering Sirmione and its surroundings. A 30-minute boat trip allows for a tour around the peninsula, offering a 360° view of the Grottoes of Catullus and the Roman villa, with a stop in front of the villa for detailed explanations on board. Bubbles on the waters surface reveal the presence of the famous natural thermal springs, while the Fortress is approached by passing under the ancient drawbridges for a unique and spectacular perspective. Lunch is planned at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, continuation by bus to Garda and visit a cellar or farm in the Bardolino area for a tasting of wines and local products. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – Southern Lake Garda: Gardone and Salò

The morning is dedicated to discovering the south-west region of the lake, with a visit to Gardone Riviera and the famous Vittoriale degli Italiani as well as the Lungolago d'Annunzio. Then, continuation to Salò, a town rich in history, architecture, and art, known for having been the seat of the Italian Social Republic during the last years of the Fascist regime. Lunch is planned at a restaurant during the visit. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 7 – Verona

In the morning, departure for Verona for a visit to the city, famous for its picturesque historic centre. You will discover emblematic squares like Piazza delle Erbe, the Roman Arena, and the medieval streets that evoke the city's rich artistic and architectural heritage. Lunch is planned at a local restaurant. After lunch, end of our services.

DAY 1 – Destination Liguria with Genoa

Arrival in Genoa scheduled for the morning. Lunch in a restaurant. In the afternoon, meeting with your guide for the discovery of Genoa, a port city with a rich maritime past and the ancient heart of the Republic of Genoa. You will walk through its narrow alleys called Carruggi, lined with palaces, churches, and lively small squares. You will also discover the famous Via Garibaldi, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with its splendid Renaissance palaces, as well as the Porto Antico (Old Port), redeveloped by the architect Renzo Piano, which today offers a beautiful promenade between sea and modernity. Late afternoon transfer to your hotel located in the Genoa area for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Portofino Peninsula

Day of discovery with your guide of the Portofino Peninsula. Departure for Rapallo for a guided tour of this charming seaside town, known for its palm-lined promenade and elegant atmosphere. Continuation by boat to Santa Margherita Ligure, an elegant seaside resort with refined charm, dotted with colourful villas and flowered gardens. Lunch in a restaurant. Early afternoon, sail to Portofino, a picturesque fishing village with colourful houses, nestled in a natural cove and become one of Italy's most renowned resorts. Time to discover its lively alleys, the central square, and the exceptional panorama from the port. Late afternoon, return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Finalborgo and Albenga

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Finalborgo, an ancient medieval village enclosed within its walls and narrow streets, which retains the characteristics of a fortified village, embellished with aristocratic buildings from the Renaissance period. Lunch during the visit and continuation to Albenga, dating back to Roman times and nicknamed the "City of a hundred towers". Visit the rich monumental centre up to the archaeological area of the Centa river, a site hosting the Roman Public Baths. Transfer to your hotel located in the Sanremo area for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Sanremo and Bordighera

Breakfast and guided tour of Sanremo, called "The City of Flowers". The city is famous for its traditional Italian Song Festival held at the Ariston Theatre, for its Art Nouveau casino, and for its magnificent villas. Lunch at the hotel.

In the afternoon, departure for Bordighera, nicknamed “the city of palms”, rich in parks, gardens, and villas. In the 19th century, it hosted hundreds of tourists mainly from France and the United Kingdom. Panoramic coach tour along the Via Romana and the elegant avenues of the “Belle Époque”, showcasing the locations painted by Claude Monet during his stay in Bordighera, from January to April 1884. Walk in the historic centre. Return to the hotel late afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Cervo and Imperia

Departure from the hotel towards Cervo, a jewel of the Riviera dei Fiori (Flower Riviera). The village has retained all its original characteristics of a medieval town perched on the sea, protected by 16th-century towers and walls, and dominated by the castle which was the former residence of the Marquis Clavesana. Visit the historic centre with its ancient aristocratic buildings and small paved streets lined with artisan shops and artists' studios. Stop for lunch and continuation of the journey towards Imperia, visit the ancient Parasio district in Porto Maurizio. Return to the hotel late afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

- Note: the village of Cervo involves elevation changes and may be difficult for people with walking difficulties.

DAY 6 – Hanbury Gardens and Dolceacqua

Departure from the hotel to the famous Hanbury Botanical Gardens, an environmental heritage site in the region, whose landscape value is particularly highlighted by the interesting historical collection of numerous exotic plant species. Transfer to Dolceacqua, a charming medieval village located in the hills of the Ligurian hinterland. Lunch at a restaurant and visit the ancient small village that Claude Monet visited several times before deciding to paint the splendid Doria Castle. Return to the hotel late afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 1 – Arrival and Discovery of Treviso

Arrival in Treviso late morning. Lunch in a restaurant and visit to the city. The discovery begins at the 16th-century walls, entering through the Altinia Gate, then proceeding through the historic centre, a true “city on the waters” thanks to the canals and waterways that cross it. You will admire the old port, the bridges, and the Pescheria, a picturesque fish market on a small island. Visit the Church of San Francesco, where the son of Dante Alighieri and the daughter of Petrarch are buried, then continue to Piazza Rinaldi, the Cathedral with Titian’s Annunciation and its Romanesque crypt. Stroll along the Calmaggiore, Piazza dei Signori with the Palazzo dei Trecento, and the Church of San Nicolò. Late afternoon, drive to your hotel in the Vicenza, Abano, or Padua region. Check-in, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Bassano del Grappa and Distillery

Breakfast at the hotel, then departure for Bassano del Grappa. Guided visit to this charming town dominated by the famous Ponte Vecchio, an elegant wooden covered bridge, the symbol of the city. Walk through the historic centre with its palaces, squares, and artisan shops. Continuation to a grappa distillery, where you will discover the art of distillation and enjoy a tasting.

Lunch during the visit. In the afternoon, possibility of visiting Villa Maser, a Palladio masterpiece classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site, or free time to deepen the discovery of Bassano. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Padua

Breakfast, then departure towards Padua. Guided visit to this university city rich in art and history: the Scrovegni Chapel and its Giotto frescoes, the Eremitani Church, the Palazzo della Ragione, the Basilica of Saint Anthony, and the Basilica of Santa Giustina. Stroll through the lively squares of the centre, including the famous Prato della Valle. Lunch in a restaurant. In the afternoon, free time to wander through the historic centre or possibility of planning a river cruise on the canals of Padua, along the Renaissance walls and the historic Portello port. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – The Prosecco Road

Day of guided visit to the famous “Prosecco Wine Road”, a cultural and enogastronomic tour. The route winds through the province of Treviso, at the foot of the Pre-Alps. It starts from the hills of Conegliano, specifically the Castle of Conegliano, passes through 15 communes, and reaches Valdobbiadene. The road has been defined as a poetic stroll in the heart of hills filled with vineyards and gracious villages where you can find old osterie and trattorie, but also admire landscapes of extraordinary beauty. Several stops are planned to visit the villages, as well as an old mill with a wooden wheel where you can watch the grinding of wheat, an abbey, and of course, a typical lunch in a trattoria and a Prosecco tasting. Return to the hotel late afternoon, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Vicenza

Breakfast at the hotel and departure towards Vicenza. Meeting with your guide and visit to the “City of Palladio”, a UNESCO site. You will discover its masterpieces: the Teatro Olimpico (Olympic Theatre), the Basilica Palladiana, and the Corso Andrea Palladio lined with elegant palaces. The city is dominated by the Sanctuary of Monte Berico, a place of high spirituality and an exceptional panorama over the surrounding hills. Lunch in a restaurant. In the afternoon, visit Villa La Rotonda, Palladio’s most famous achievement, a model of architectural harmony and perfection. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – The Brenta Riviera

Departure in the morning for an unforgettable cruise on the Brenta Riviera, between Padua and the Venetian villas along the ancient river route taken by Venetian nobles. Along the water, you will admire the elegant patrician villas built between the 16th and 18th centuries, true pleasure residences that bear witness to the splendor of the Most Serene Republic. The cruise will allow you to pass through the locks that regulate the river level and relive the atmosphere of the ancient voyages of the Doges and aristocrats. Stops are planned for guided visits to prestigious villas (depending on opening days and times): Villa Pisani in Stra, nicknamed the “Versailles of the Brenta”, a monumental residence with splendid Tiepolo frescoes. Villa Widmann, an elegant 18th-century residence surrounded by a charming Italian-style garden. Villa Foscari, known as La Malcontenta, a Palladio masterpiece classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Lunch in a typical restaurant or in a villa during the cruise. In the afternoon, continue sailing along the Brenta, enjoying the green landscapes, the small riverside localities, and the gentle atmosphere prevailing along the river. At the end of the day, return to Padua and transfer to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

Hidden Treasures of Italy

7 nights

DAY 1 – Destination The Marche Region

Group arrival in Senigallia, an elegant seaside resort located 40 km north of Ancona and a starting point for all planned excursions during the week. Welcome cocktail, dinner, and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 2 – Urbino and Pesaro

Morning dedicated to a guided tour of Urbino, one of the capitals of the Italian Renaissance. The Ducal Palace (Palazzo Ducale), one of the most beautiful Renaissance residences and home to the National Gallery of the Marche, is the symbol of the city. Its interior allows a visit to approximately 80 rooms, housing masterpieces by famous artists such as Raphael, Titian, and Piero della Francesca. Continuation towards Pesaro, the birthplace of Rossini. Guided tour of the historic centre with the composer's birthplace, the Cathedral preserving splendid mosaics, and the Ducal Palace. Return to the hotel late afternoon, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Ascoli Piceno and Macerata

Traveling south along the coast, we reach the picturesque city of Ascoli Piceno, known as 'the city of 100 towers', rich in Roman and medieval monuments.

Guided tour of the historic centre: the People's Palace (Palazzo del Popolo), the San Francesco Church, the Merchants' Loggia (Loggia dei Mercanti), and finally, Piazza del Popolo, considered one of the most beautiful in Italy, a true Renaissance salotto (drawing-room) with its historic Caffè Meletti. Free time to taste one of the city's specialties, namely, stuffed olives and anisetta (anise liqueur). In the afternoon, guided tour of Macerata with the famous Sferisterio, a theatrical structure of unique architectural style. In the heart of the city is Piazza della Libertà, featuring the Merchants' Loggia, the Baroque S. Paolo Church, and the Rossi Theatre, one of the most beautiful in the Marche region. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Gradara and the Panoramic Road

Morning dedicated to a guided tour of the medieval village of Gradara, a practically intact town, surrounded by walls and fortified gates. Visit the castle, famous for the tragic story of Paolo and Francesca sung by Dante in the Divine Comedy. Free time for shopping and lunch in one of the many small restaurants inside the village. In the afternoon, departure with the guide for Gabicce Monte, perched on the sea, offering a splendid view of the Romagna coast. Continuation south along the famous Panoramic Road, partly alongside the sea and partly in the hills. Stop in the delightful medieval village of Fiorenzuola di Focara. Return to Senigallia late afternoon, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Frasassi Caves, Jesi, and Wine Tasting

After breakfast, departure for the Frasassi Caves, among the longest and most beautiful in Europe, with their splendid enchanted and lunar landscapes. Guided tour of this natural masterpiece. Continuation to Jesi, birthplace of “Verdicchio”, the famous local wine. In the afternoon, guided tour of the ancient historic centre surrounded by 15th-century walls, stop at the Municipal Art Gallery (Pinacoteca Comunale) and the Pergolesi Theatre. Finally, late afternoon, wine tasting in suggestive 17th-century cellars. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – Loreto and Senigallia

Morning dedicated to a guided tour of Loreto, a famous site considered one of the most important and oldest Marian pilgrimage sites in the Catholic world. Visit the sanctuary with the basilica that houses the Holy House of the Virgin Mary of Nazareth, transported, according to tradition, by angels to Loreto. Afternoon of relaxation on the “velvet beach” of Senigallia or shopping and visit of the centre: the Ercolani Arcades (Portici Ercolani), the Annona Forum (Foro Annonario), and Piazza del Duca, with its imposing Roveresca Fortress. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Land of Timeless Landscapes

6 nights

DAY 1 – Destination The Abruzzo Region

Arrival in the Abruzzo region during the day, check-in at a hotel located on the coast, where the group will stay until the day of departure. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Sulmona, Gorges of the Sagittario and Lake Scanno

Departure for Sulmona, one of the region's most beautiful art cities, with a visit to the San Panfilo Cathedral, the medieval aqueduct, the Complesso dell' Annunziata, and other monuments. Light lunch based on typical Abruzzese products. The scenic drive through the Gorges of the Sagittario will then lead to Lake Scanno. Visit the historic centre of Scanno, one of the region's most beautiful and well-preserved towns. This village boasts an ancient tradition of goldsmithing, kept very active by its artisans. Visit one of the oldest workshops in the small town, followed by a return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Lanciano, San Giovanni in Venere and Costa dei Trabocchi

Departure for Lanciano,

where the visit will allow admiration of the Santa Maria del Ponte Cathedral, the ancient district of Lanciano Vecchia, and the Church of S. Francesco, which preserves the relics of the Eucharistic miracle, the oldest and one of the few recognized by the Catholic Church. Light lunch based on fish on a "Trabocco". Continuation of the journey to the 13th-century Abbey of San Giovanni in Venere, situated in a splendid position overlooking the sea. After the visit, the route follows the Costa dei Trabocchi. This splendid natural landscape, characterized by numerous rocky reefs interspersed with small coves, is dotted with fishing machines called trabocchi; suspended over the waves and supported by tall stilts, these very ancient architectural structures are still present in rare locations in the Mediterranean. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Gran Sasso National Park and Piana di Navelli

After breakfast at the hotel, departure for the Gran Sasso National Park, up to Campo Imperatore, an immense high plateau at 1600 metres of altitude, which became famous thanks to the Western films of Sergio Leone and the Trinità film series that were shot there. Continuation of the journey to the characteristic medieval village of Santo Stefano in Sessanio, visit and lunch in an ancient convent. In the afternoon, departure for the Piana di Navelli, a land of saffron production offering extraordinary panoramic views. Then, visit the Abbey of Santa Maria di Bominaco, perfectly integrated into the landscape context. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

Journey to the Heart of the Roman Region:
From Antiquity to the Baroque

5 nights

DAY 1 – Baroque Rome

Arrival in Rome and meeting with your local guide for a panoramic walking tour of Baroque Rome. You will admire the city's emblematic monuments, such as: Piazza di Spagna (Spanish Steps), Via del Corso, Trevi Fountain, Piazza Montecitorio, Pantheon, Piazza Navona, San Luigi dei Francesi, Campo dei Fiori, and Piazza Farnese. The Baroque period left an indelible mark on Rome's urban fabric. An expression of the triumphant Church after the Protestant Reformation, this style is distinguished by its theatricality and its capacity to move the spectator. In the 17th century, palaces, fountains, squares, and churches transformed the city, giving it the face we still know today. Lunch in a typical local trattoria. Late afternoon, check-in at the hotel in the region. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Roman Castles

Meeting with your guide and departure towards the Castelli Romani (Roman Castles) region. You will discover the gentle, lush slopes of the Alban Hills and ancient towns such as Frascati, perched on its hill and famous for its white wine vineyards.

From the central square, there is an expansive view of Rome and the grandiose Villa Aldobrandini and its gardens. Continuation to Grottaferrata and its Santa Maria Abbey with its magnificent frescoes, then Rocca di Papa, a picturesque village. Typical lunch with wine tasting in a local osteria (traditional tavern). Return to the hotel in the afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Ancient Rome

Day dedicated to Ancient Rome to admire the Colosseum, the symbol of the city, the Roman Forum, and the Palatine Hill. The Colosseum, the largest amphitheater of the Roman Empire, hosted spectacles involving wild animals, gladiatorial combats, and battle reenactments for more than five centuries. The Forum, a former marsh drained at the end of the 7th century BC, became the center of Roman public life. The Palatine Hill, according to tradition, is the place where Romulus founded "Squarem Rome" housing sanctuaries and sumptuous villas. Lunch in a restaurant during the visit. Return to the hotel late afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Tivoli

Departure towards Tivoli, a resort location since Antiquity and throughout the Renaissance. Guided tour of Villa Adriana (Hadrian's Villa), built by Emperor Hadrian, reproducing the best architectures of Egypt, Greece, and Rome in the form of an "ideal city". This site is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Lunch in a local restaurant. In the afternoon, visit Villa d'Este, built for Cardinal Ippolito d'Este in 1550, with its palace and gardens, a remarkable example of refined Renaissance culture. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – The Vatican

Meeting with the guide to visit the Vatican Museums, St. Peter's Basilica, and St. Peter's Square. The Vatican Museums are among the oldest and most visited in the world, including chapels and frescoed rooms, such as the Sistine Chapel and the Raphael Rooms, as well as the gardens. St. Peter's Basilica, imposing with its 218 meters in length and 136-meter dome, is one of the largest papal basilicas. St. Peter's Square, spectacular with its 284 columns and 88 pillars, can accommodate over 300,000 people during major events. Lunch in a restaurant in the area. Free afternoon to wander around Rome. In the evening, typical dinner in a trattoria in the bohemian Trastevere district, the medieval and romantic heart of the city. Return to the hotel for the night.

DAY 6 – Ostia Antica

Departure for Ostia. The ancient port of Rome, Ostia Antica is one of the best-preserved archaeological sites in Italy. Guided tour through the ruins: the forum, Capitolium, Baths of Neptune, Roman Theatre still in use today, insulae (apartment blocks), public baths, and collective latrines. An immersion into the daily life of the Romans, with ancient frescoes, mosaics, and graffiti. Lunch in a restaurant and end of our services.

Journey to the Heart of Puglia

8 nights

DAY 1 – Bari

Arrival in Bari and guided tour of S. Nicola, the Cathedral, the Castle, and the city. Bari has very ancient origins; the various dominations it has been subjected to, such as those of the Romans, Lombards, Arabs, and Byzantines, have left important marks. Lunch in a restaurant. Departure towards the hotel located in the Barletta/Bisceglie area for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Castel del Monte and Trani

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer towards Castel del Monte, the castle of Frederick II. The castle stands, isolated, on a hill in the “Murge” area. It was Frederick II of Swabia who had it built, and who perhaps even designed its plans, to use it as a summer residence. It is an extraordinary octagonal construction, enlivened by eight equally octagonal towers: the whole gives an impression of measured elegance and truly innovative harmony. Lunch at a restaurant and continuation towards Trani. Walk through the streets of this ancient maritime city with pink stone buildings and stop in front of the Svevo Castle, one of the finest examples of fortification erected in the region by Frederick II. Discovery of its Romanesque cathedral, one of the most beautiful in Puglia, dedicated to Saint Nicholas the Pilgrim, a humble Greek shepherd who is said to have arrived in Trani on the back of a dolphin. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Matera and Altamura

Breakfast at the hotel and departure towards Matera. Guided tour of the site proclaimed a “World Heritage Site”. These are the “Sassi”, one of the most singular, ancient, and extraordinary sites in the world: the houses are carved into the tuff and the walls built with the same material. Lunch in a restaurant and continuation towards Altamura, world-renowned for the production of its bread, to be tasted in one of its panetterie (bakeries). Continuation towards the hotel located in the Polignano a Mare/Monopoli/Alberobello area for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Alberobello and Polignano a Mare

Breakfast and departure towards Alberobello, in the heart of the “Trulli” region, suggestive whitewashed dwellings with conical roofs covered with flat stones. Guided tour and lunch. Continuation towards Polignano a Mare, one of the most beautiful villages in Italy and an unmissable destination during a trip to Puglia.

Its charm lies not only in the beauty of the sea, but also in its historic centre, with its stone houses, loggias, labyrinth of narrow streets, and panoramic terraces. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Castellana Caves and Martina Franca or Locorotondo

Breakfast at the hotel and departure towards the Castellana Caves, carved out by underground rivers. It is the most important underground complex in Italy. Short route, about 50 minutes, to discover a part of this spectacular karst universe. Lunch in a restaurant and continuation towards:

-Option 1 – Martina Franca

Martina Franca, a pretty village that has managed to maintain its timeless charm. Its historic centre, perched on a hill 400 metres above sea level, captivates with its narrow streets, Baroque palaces, and elegant churches, forming a true open-air museum. Continuation with a visit to the Frantoio Ipogeo of Martina Franca, an ancient underground mill carved into the rock, a unique witness to ancient olive oil production techniques. Discovery of the presses, basins, and drainage channels, followed by a tasting of local olive oil with the typical aromas of the region. An experience combining history, tradition, and gastronomy. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

-Option 2 – Locorotondo

One of the most charming “white cities” of Puglia, a kingdom of flowered balconies and houses with roofs called cummerse, in the heart of the Valle d'Itria or Terra dei Trulli. Locorotondo amazes with its circular shape and concentric streets, which explain the origin of its name. Classified among the most beautiful villages in Italy, it shares its authenticity with Ostuni, Cisternino, and Martina Franca. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – Ostuni

Morning dedicated to visiting Ostuni, a magnificent small city that rises on three hills of the Itria Valley. Nicknamed “La città bianca” (the white city), it owes its name to its historic centre houses covered with lime. Lunch in a restaurant and continuation towards the hotel located in the Lecce area, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 7 – Lecce

Breakfast at the hotel. Day dedicated to discovering Lecce: guided tour of the capital of the Salento peninsula, nicknamed the “Florence of the South”, a true capital of Italian Baroque. Lecce experienced a period of splendour that earned it its remarkable monuments: the Basilica of Santa Croce, the Government Palace, the Piazza del Duomo, the bell tower, the Cathedral, the Episcopal Palace, and the Seminary Palace which adorn its charming streets. Tasting break of a caffè leccese and the famous pasticciotto. Lunch at a restaurant. After lunch, free time for personal discovery or possibility of visiting a Baroque residence. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 8 – Otranto and Salento

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer towards Otranto and guided tour: the Cathedral, the Byzantine Church, and the Aragonese Castle (exterior). Lunch at a restaurant en route. Continuation towards Galatina, a craft and wine centre of Salento. The city has a cathedral whose Baroque façade recalls the graceful style of Lecce. The Church of Santa Caterina di Alessandria (14th century) houses a marvelous cycle of frescoes by various artists. Continuation towards Gallipoli for a guided walk in the city, between its picturesque historic centre and its views of the Ionian Sea. Return to the hotel: dinner and overnight stay.

7 nights

DAY 1 – Destination Scotland

Arrival in Glasgow, welcome at the airport, and transfer to the hotel. Scotland's largest city surprises with its energy: here, the industrial soul of the 19th century meets effervescent contemporary creativity. Free time to relax or for a first stroll through elegant streets, lively districts, and street art murals that color the city. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 2 – Stirling and Glasgow

After breakfast, departure for Stirling, the former Scottish capital and the site of the greatest battles for independence. Stirling Castle, perched on its rock outcrop, is not just an impressive fortress: it is a symbol of national history, offering a magnificent panorama of the Highlands. In the afternoon, return to Glasgow to discover its modern face: avant-garde museums like the Riverside Museum, bold architecture by Charles Rennie Mackintosh, and districts transformed into open-air galleries thanks to the mural frescoes. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 3 – Loch Lomond and Inveraray

Departure towards Loch Lomond, considered Scotland's most romantic loch. Its waters, shifting with the light, are surrounded by gentle hills and deep forests. A stop at Luss, a charming village with stone houses and flowered gardens, allows you to savor the authenticity of the Scottish countryside. Continue towards Inveraray, an elegant Georgian town on the shore of Loch Fyne. Visit its Castle, the historic seat of the powerful Clan Campbell, rich in precious furnishings and family heirlooms. Dinner and overnight stay in the Dalmally region or along the West Coast.

DAY 4 – The Isle of Skye

Cross the spectacular Glencoe Valley, a mythical place steeped in history and legends, where mountains and valleys create one of Scotland's most magnificent landscapes. From Mallaig, embark for the Isle of Skye, a natural jewel with a wild character: dizzying cliffs, rugged mountains, and horizons that seem painted by nature. On the way back, photo stop at Eilean Donan Castle, arguably Scotland's most emblematic manor, often chosen as a film set. Dinner and overnight stay in the Inverness or Aviemore region.

DAY 5 – Loch Ness & Aberdeen

In the morning, discover the famous Loch Ness, a mysterious lake made mythical by the legend of Nessie, its elusive inhabitant. The ruins of Urquhart Castle, overlooking its dark waters, evoke centuries of battles and epic stories. Continue towards Aberdeen, the "Granite City" with a stop at Elgin Cathedral, a splendid example of Scottish Gothic, nicknamed the "Lantern of the North." Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 6 – Dunnottar and Glamis

In the morning, photo stop at Dunnottar Castle, a dramatic fortress standing on a rocky outcrop overlooking the sea. Here, between waves crashing on the cliffs and ruins battered by the wind, one feels the epic strength of Scottish history. Continue to Glamis Castle, an elegant residence surrounded by greenery, linked to ancient legends and the British Royal Family: it was notably the childhood home of the Queen Mother. Before reaching Edinburgh, stop at the Forth Bridge, an audacious 19th-century railway bridge, a UNESCO World Heritage engineering masterpiece. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 7 – Edinburgh

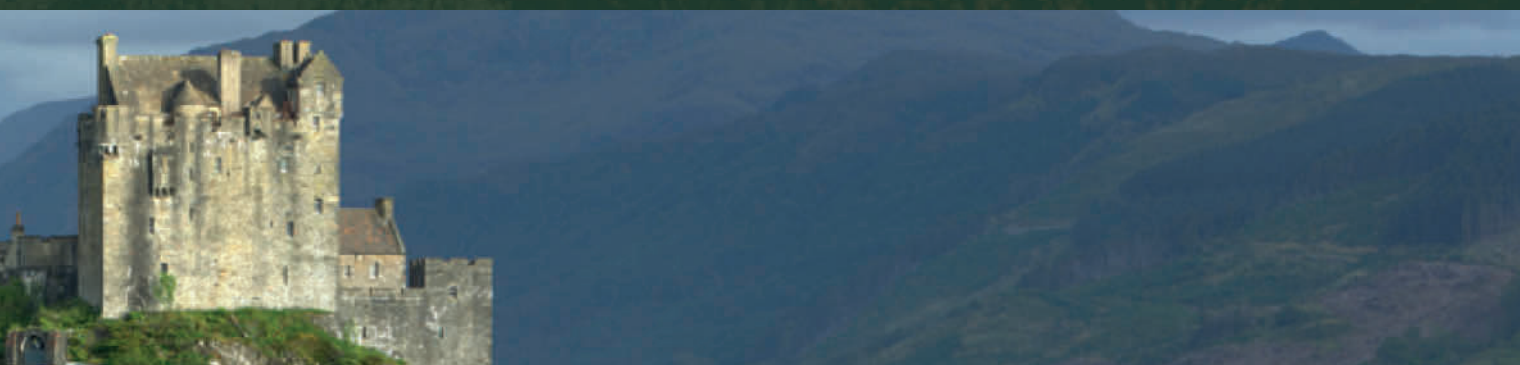

Full day dedicated to the Scottish capital, a city of two faces: the medieval Old Town and the Georgian New Town, both UNESCO World Heritage sites. Stroll along the Royal Mile, dotted with iconic sites like St. Giles' Cathedral and the Palace of Holyroodhouse, leading up to Edinburgh Castle, which dominates the city from its rock. In the afternoon, free time to delve deeper into the visit, browse the elegant shops, or savor the atmosphere of a typical pub. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Pearls of the Adriatic

6 nights

DAY 1 – Dubrovnik

Arrival at Dubrovnik Airport. Departure for the center of Cavtat and meeting with the guide. Stroll along the Riva to discover the slightly retro charm of this town, a famous Croatian tourist destination for centuries. Visit Saint Nicholas Church, whose frescoes of the four evangelists are particularly noteworthy, and the Our Lady of the Snows Monastery, housing magnificent works of Croatian Renaissance art. Behind it stands the Račić Family Mausoleum, an architectural masterpiece by Ivan Meštrović, built in 1921. Continue towards Dubrovnik and lunch at a restaurant. Guided tour of the ancient Adriatic city, surrounded by imposing ramparts and fortresses. Optional visit (at extra cost) to Saint Vincent Cathedral, the Rector's Palace, and the Franciscan and Dominican monasteries. Check-in at a hotel in the region, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 2 – Zadar and Trogir

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Zadar, an ancient Dalmatian city rich with over 3,000 years of history. Historically the capital of Dalmatia and now a vibrant cultural and tourist center, the city reveals a fascinating blend of Roman ruins, medieval churches, and Venetian architecture. Walk through the historic center: the Forum Square, Saint Donatus Church, and Saint Anastasia Cathedral testify to this rich past. Time to wander through the picturesque alleys or listen to the Sea Organ, a unique curiosity. Lunch at a restaurant. In the afternoon, depart for Trogir, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Located on a small island connected to the mainland by two bridges, it captivates with its remarkably preserved medieval center, Venetian-style palaces, and Saint Lawrence Cathedral, a jewel of Romanesque-Gothic art. Its atmosphere has earned it the nickname "Little Dalmatian Venice". Check-in at a hotel in Trogir, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Plitvice Lakes

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for a day trip to Plitvice Lakes, a UNESCO World Heritage site. This exceptional site, a true natural treasure of Croatia, consists of 16 lakes connected by a series of spectacular waterfalls. Walk on wooden footbridges winding between turquoise waters, deep forests, and flowering meadows. The richness of the fauna and flora, the play of light on the water, and the majestic setting create a fairytale atmosphere. Lunch at a restaurant during the excursion. Return to the hotel in the late afternoon, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 4 – Split

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Split, the second largest city in Croatia and one of the most important ports in the Adriatic. Guided tour of the old town dominated by Diocletian's Palace, a massive Roman imperial residence built between 295 and 305 AD and transformed over the centuries into the city's vibrant heart. Discover the picturesque alleys, lively squares, and colorful markets, which reflect the meeting of ancient heritage, medieval influences, and modern life. Free time to enjoy the Mediterranean ambiance. Lunch at a restaurant. In the afternoon, continue towards the Dubrovnik region. Check-in at the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 5 – Elaphiti Islands

Breakfast at the hotel and boat excursion to the Elaphiti Islands archipelago, located northwest of Dubrovnik. These islands, including Koločep, Lopud, and Šipan, captivate with the beauty of their preserved landscapes, isolated coves, and charming villages. Discover pine-lined beaches, ancient churches, and citrus gardens that evoke the gentle Mediterranean life. Between swimming, relaxation, and immersion in authentic nature, this day allows you to appreciate the peaceful atmosphere of the Adriatic. Lunch during the excursion. Return to the hotel, dinner, and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – Kotor

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Kotor. Excursion to the famous Bay of Kotor, an ancient maritime and cultural center, a crossroads of trade routes for centuries. Visit the Old Town, surrounded by medieval walls built against Byzantine invasions, one of the best-preserved medieval urban ensembles in the Mediterranean. Discover the steep alleys, squares, patrician palaces, and religious buildings. The Old Town of Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Lunch along the way. Return to Dubrovnik, dinner, and overnight stay.

The Jewels of Andalusia

7 nights

DAY 1 – Destination Andalusia

Arrival at Malaga Airport, meet and greet with the local assistant, and transfer to your hotel on the Costa del Sol. This region, bathed in over 300 days of sunshine per year, welcomes you with the scent of the sea, the sound of the waves, and a lively atmosphere that already hints at the charm of Andalusia. The coastal streets, bustling squares, and mild climate immediately signal the start of an exceptional stay. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 2 – Nerja and Granada

Breakfast at the hotel, then departure for Nerja, a charming town suspended between the sea and the mountains. The famous “Balcony of Europe” offers breathtaking views of the coast and invites you to embrace the horizon, where the sky seems to merge with the Mediterranean. The caves, discovered in 1959, offer a subterranean spectacle of monumental stalactites and stalagmites, including the impressive 32-meter-high column in the Cataclysm Hall.

In the afternoon, arrival in Granada, a city of Moorish charm, where narrow streets and squares still reveal the secrets of the Andalusian era. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 3 – Granada

Breakfast at the hotel. The morning is dedicated to visiting the Alhambra, an architectural and poetic masterpiece of Arab art, with its silent courtyards, finely decorated halls, and geometric patterns that continue in the ceramics, bearing witness to a splendid past. After lunch, visit the Generalife, the summer residence of the Nasrid rulers: fragrant gardens, fountains, and water features create an oasis of timeless harmony. In the afternoon, a panoramic bus tour of the Albayzín quarter, with its narrow alleys and white houses overlooking the Alhambra, where every corner tells the history of Granada.

DAY 4 – Jaén and Cordoba

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure for Jaén, with a scenic stop at the Santa Catalina Castle, a millenary sentinel overlooking the city and the surrounding olive groves. Continue to Cordoba, the ancient capital of the Caliphate, for a visit to the remarkable Mezquita (Mosque-Cathedral), a complex of columns and arches that fuses Islamic and Christian influences. Stroll through the Jewish Quarter (Judería), among picturesque alleys, flower-filled patios, and silent, history-laden corners. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 5 – Carmona and Seville

Breakfast at the hotel, then departure for Carmona, a city with Roman roots that still preserves vestiges of the Via Augusta and a picturesque ancient bridge. Strolling through the center, you can feel the charm of a town that has spanned centuries of history. In the afternoon, arrival in Seville, the capital of Andalusia, for a panoramic tour of its iconic sites: the Plaza de España, an architectural triumph blending elegance and color; the Torre del Oro, reflecting the light of the Guadalquivir River; and the Maria Luisa Park, an oasis of greenery and tranquility. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 6 – Seville

Breakfast at the hotel. The morning is dedicated to exploring Seville Cathedral, the largest Gothic construction in the world, guardian of artistic treasures and legends, and the Giralda, an ancient minaret transformed into a bell tower dominating the city's rooftops. A walk then leads to the Santa Cruz quarter, a labyrinth of flower-decked alleys and small squares that retain the magic of Andalusia intact. Lunch at a typical restaurant. The afternoon is free to delve deeper into the visit or be captivated by the atmosphere of the patios. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 7 – Ronda and Marbella

Breakfast at the hotel, then departure for Ronda, a city unique in the world, built astride the deep El Tajo gorge. The white houses overlooking the abyss, the majestic Plaza de Toros (Bullring), and the Colegiata de Santa María make it one of Andalusia's most spectacular destinations. In the afternoon, transfer to Marbella and visit Puerto Banús, the elegant symbol of the Costa del Sol, with its luxury yachts and sparkling boutiques. Return to the coast, dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

North India: Glimpses of Rajasthan

8 nights

DAY 1 – Arrival in Delhi

Upon arrival at the airport, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. Delhi, a vibrant and sprawling capital, fascinates with its unique blend of ancient history and dynamic modernity. In its streets, rickshaws cross paths with motorbikes and tuk-tuks, while colourful bazaars, temples, and monuments tell a thousand stories. Free time to relax and absorb the city's intense atmosphere. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 2 – Delhi

A full day to delve into the layers of Delhi's history. To the south, the Qutub Minar, an impressive stone tower started in 1199, bears witness to the grandeur of past empires. Next, the Gurudwara Bangla Sahib, a Sikh temple with a golden dome, impresses with its peaceful ambiance and its enormous community kitchen offering free meals to all worshippers. The India Gate and British buildings evoke colonial Delhi, while Old Delhi unveils a completely different face: aboard a rickshaw, stroll through the narrow streets full of spice aromas and vivid colours. Admire the Jama Masjid, one of the largest mosques in the world, and pass the Red Fort and Raj Ghat, an moving memorial to Gandhi. This day offers a perfect balance of culture, spirituality, and immersion in local life. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 3 – Delhi to Mandawa

Drive to Mandawa, in the heart of the Shekhawati desert, a region of merchant caravans. Mandawa surprises with its havelis, wealthy mansions whose facades are painted with frescoes depicting myths, legends, and scenes from daily life. The bright colours, floral motifs, and architectural details create a true open-air museum. A walk through its streets, on foot or by bicycle, is an immersion in Rajasthani history and art. Dinner and overnight stay there.

DAY 4 – Mandawa to Jodhpur

Head for Jodhpur, the "Blue City". Its historic centre, with its blue-painted houses, contrasts sharply with the desert's brilliant sky. Upon arrival, visit Mehrangarh Fort, perched 125 metres high and dominating the city. Every room, every balcony, every carved door recounts the lives of the Maharajas and Rajput warriors. The view from the ramparts is spectacular: the city stretches out as far as the eye can see. Next, visit the Jaswant Thada, a white marble cenotaph with peaceful gardens, and stroll to the Clock Tower, the beating heart of the local market, where craftsmanship and colours mingle with daily life. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 5 – Pushkar & Jaipur

Depart for Jaipur with a stop at Pushkar, a sacred city nestled on the edge of a holy lake dedicated to the god Brahma. Pilgrims perform ritual ablutions along the 52 ghats and celebrate numerous religious festivals here. The Brahma Temple, unique in India, is distinguished by its red shikhara (spire) and refined sculptures. Take a walk along the lake and through the colourful bazaar before continuing to Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan, nicknamed the Pink City for the colour of its buildings. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 6 – Jaipur

Visit Amber Fort, a majestic fortress-palace overlooking the valley. Its interior courtyards, decorated palaces, and secret passages recount the history of the Maharajas. Return to the city with a photo stop at the Hawa Mahal, the screened facade nicknamed the “Palace of the Winds” where the ladies of the harem once discretely observed the outside life. Then, discover the City Palace, still inhabited by the royal family, and the Jantar Mantar, an astronomical observatory with colossal instruments, a UNESCO World Heritage site. In the evening, attend a Hindu prayer ceremony to experience a unique moment of spirituality. Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 7 – Dausa and Fatehpur Sikri to Agra

Morning departure for Agra with a stop in Dausa, a traditional village. Here, meet locals and visit the local school to discover the children’s daily life (if possible according to the school calendar). Enjoy a convivial lunch in the village, an authentic experience to immerse yourself in local life and Rajasthani traditions. Continue to Fatehpur Sikri, the former imperial capital founded by Emperor Akbar in the 16th century. This city, built on a sandstone hill, is now deserted but perfectly preserved, offering an exceptional testament to Mughal architecture and the empire’s grandeur. Explore the main monuments: the Jama Masjid mosque, the Diwan-i-Khas (Hall of Private Audience), and the Panch Mahal. Every building tells the story of the emperors and their vision of a unified kingdom. Arrive in Agra in the late afternoon and check in to the hotel. Free time to relax or enjoy an initial walk through the city’s lively streets. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 8 – Taj Mahal & Drive to Delhi

The morning is dedicated to discovering the Taj Mahal, a true poem in white marble, erected by Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his wife Mumtaz Mahal. The fineness of the details, the precious stone inlays, and the harmony of the gardens make this monument one of the wonders of the world. Next, visit the Red Fort (Agra Fort), an immense complex of sandstone and marble overlooking the Yamuna River. Discover the halls of public and private audience, the inner palaces, gardens, and museums tracing the life of the Mughal court. Architectural details, balconies, and carved windows bear witness to the wealth and refinement of the rulers. In the afternoon, drive back to Delhi (approx. 4 hours), arriving in the early evening. Check in to the hotel, have dinner, and enjoy some free time to soak up the unique atmosphere of the Indian capital one last time. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Optional: Participate in a one-hour yoga session facing the Taj Mahal, a unique experience to harmonize body and mind and fully feel the energy and spirituality of this iconic place in India.

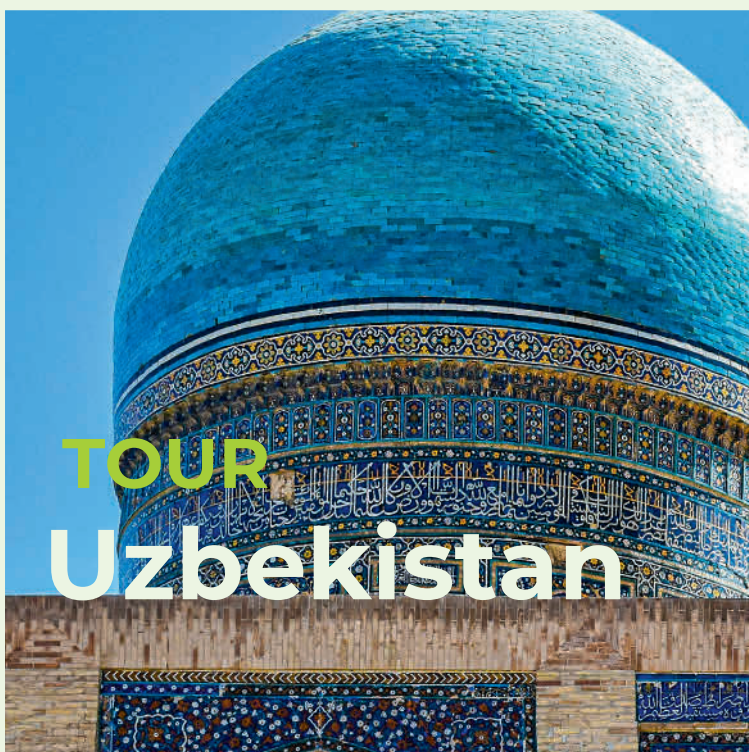

DAY 9 – Departure

Transfer to the airport and flight home. End of your journey through North India, rich in colours, emotions, and unforgettable experiences.
